The Cultural Pass program is made possible by our amazing sponsors!

Canby Public Library members and staff are grateful to the Friends of the Canby Public Library for funding the cultural pass program. Because of the generosity of the Friends, Canby residents are able to explore the culture and history of Clackamas County, the Portland metro area, and the State of Oregon. The passes provide an important, affordable opportunity to learn more about our home.

Estacada Library offers these cultural passes for fun, adventure and learning. Funding comes from our citizens. Thank you for supporting your library.

Thank you to the Friends of the Happy Valley Library for their generous support of the cultural pass program.

Thank you to the Friends of Lake Oswego Public Library for their generous sponsorship of the cultural pass program.

The Molalla Library is pleased to be able to provide these cultural passes.

The Oregon City Friends of the Library sponsors the cultural pass program. They are dedicated to ongoing learning and exploration through the provision of cultural passes for our community. With heartfelt thanks, we recognize the Friends for their contribution.

Thank you to the West Linn Library Foundation for sponsoring the cultural pass program.

Gladstone Public Library is able to offer these cultural passes through funding from our citizens. Thank you for supporting your library.

Thank you to the Friends of Hoodland Library for their generous support of the cultural pass program.

Thank you to the Friends of the Ledding Library for their continued sponsorship of the cultural pass program. This is only one of the many generous ways our Friends support us and our community throughout the year.

Thank you to the Friends of Oak Lodge Public Library for their generous support of the cultural pass program.

Thank you to the Friends of Sandy Library for their generous support of the cultural pass program.

Thank you to the Friends of the Wilsonville Library for their generous support of the cultural pass program.